

Greenbelt at the Crossroads

"I'll save you a seat".

Manager Gobbel Crowns Queen Lou

Girl's basketball captain Lou Morrison exchanged her uniform for a gown of blue to be crowned queen of the seventh annual All-Greenbelt Night, as close to a thousand spectators jammed the auditorium last Friday night. Two basketball games, a tumbling exhibition and dancing till midnight rounded out the event, biggest affair of the high school year.

Basketball players given awards by Redskin Secretary Lou Gerstel were Captain Morrison, Margaret Braun, Ellen Bryant, Mary Cashman, Dorothy Heuse, Pat Loftus, Dolores McWilliams, and Dolores Wolfe, for the girls, and for the boys, Harry Benefiel, Sumner Craig, Teddy Fox, Bob Fisher, Henry Gurney and John Littleton.

Queen Lou and her court made their entrance after the close of the girls' game with Maryland Park. Carrying chains of pine to make an avenue for the royal procession were Seniors Betty Austin, Patricia Featherby, Joy Roby and Patsy Sherertz; Juniors Joan Reed and Lois Ann Kirby; Sophomores Helen Miller and Jean Therrell; and Eighth-Graders Betty May Gussio and Esther Wolfe, all dressed in white with red carnations in their hair. Ladies-in-waiting came next; eighth-grader Carole Howard in blue, sophomore Patsy Hesse in pink, junior Dolores Wolfe in blue, and seniors Corrine Davis and Betty Sillaman wearing peach and aqua respectively. Betty Arrington, senior maid of honor, was dressed in yellow.

Little Brenda Gale Smith, flower girl, had an attack of shyness that delayed the procession till officer Buddy Attick came to the rescue and carried her to the queen's platform. Her companion was Jan'ce Sims. Crown bearer Billy Sillaman and train bearer Dick Davis made up the rest of the juvenile members of the court.

Elementary school tumblers who entertained the crowd before the procession were Carol Day, Nancy Drass, Rhoda Gibley, Ida Mae Hol'ien, Hugh Hunter, Laurie Maffey, Kenneth and Robert Miller, Betty Oldham, Nancy Snyder and Dick Ward.

Following the boys' team, 40-27 victory over Maryland Park, Jack Waldo's band furnished the music for dancing.

P-TA Bake Sale

The elementary school PTA will hold a bake sale Friday, March 15, in the theatre lobby at 10 a. m. The bake sale, under the direction of Mrs. Clifford Woodward and Mrs. William Rupert is for the purpose of raising funds for the PTA treasury.

Southway To Get Super-Road Access

Tenants at 11-E Southway will find themselves next-door neighbors to the new six-lane super-highway, revealed Fred Tuemmler, director of planning for the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission, at the meeting of the Citizens Association held Monday night at the center school. Maps specially prepared for his talk here disclosed that the parkway will lie as close as 250 feet from the nearest houses, with the actual road about 400 feet away. Noise, said Mr. Tuemmler, should be negligible despite the closeness of the traffic, since it is planned to screen the highway with shrubbery, and no billboards, gas stations, or hot dog stands will mar the landscape along its route. While buses will probably travel the new road in preference to the Baltimore pike, they will make no stops on the main thoroughfare but will have to turn off into way-stations to collect and discharge passengers.

Greenbelt will be connected with the super-road by a "merging traffic" arrangement, similar to a cloverleaf, at the point where Southway joins the Branchville-Glenn Dale road this side of the Schrom Airport. There will be no traffic lights on the speedway, and another intersection on cloverleaf lines is planned further along at Beltsville, for the benefit of workers at the Research Center. Originally mapped to pass along the far boundary of the Schrom Airport, the route was changed to remove the danger from low-flying planes coming in over the road.

Questioned by anxious parents on the possible danger to local children from the proximity of high-speed traffic, Mr. Tuemmler admitted that an intensive educational program would be needed to implement such precautions as fencing in the roadway from access by pedestrians. No danger need be anticipated this summer, he added, stating that work on the project should be completed sometime "within five years."

The super-road will cross the District line to join with a proposed extension of New York Avenue past its present terminus at Bladensburg Road, and will proceed into southeast Washington to connect with Constitution Avenue from the Anacostia parkway. In the other direction, plans for Public Roads Authority construction go only as far as Ft. Meade, with the remaining section left up to the Maryland State Roads Commission along with the problem of whether to go through or around the city of Baltimore.

Mothers Planning A Kitchen Shower

Plans are being laid by a committee of North End mothers for a "Get Acquainted Party" to be held March 20, at 1:30 p. m., at the North End School. All Greenbelt mothers, with or without children of school age are cordially invited to come and play games and enjoy refreshments. A nursery is being set up to take care of young children. A special feature of the gathering will be an informal roll-call by states, so that residents of the same state can get acquainted.

Tickets are being sold in each court for 25c apiece to finance needed equipment for the North End cafeteria, including grinders, graters, juicers, can openers and similar gadgets not provided by the County.

Prizes are being awarded for each table, while refreshments are being provided by GCS, the Holmes Bakery, and the Chestnut Farms Dairy.

The various committees planning the event met this afternoon with general chairman Mrs. J. W. Smith, who should be contacted at GR. 6646 for further details or offers of assistance.

Winston May Attend Monday Council After Meeting To Work On Budget

Following a conference with the town council next Monday afternoon to thrash out the town budget question, Field Office director Oliver Winston is expected to attend the regular Monday night council meeting here in Greenbelt, it was learned from Councilman Allen Morrison after the recent discussion at the FPFA field office. Mayor George Bauer has stated that the council is "not going to budge" despite FPFA's anticipated effort to cut down on town expenses.

Which Winston?

Tenant Selection Supervisor Mary Jane Kinzer, whose brother-in-law is a member of the Virginia State Legislature, has received his one and only guest ticket to hear Winston Churchill when he addresses the Virginia Assembly this Monday. She is torn between opportunity to hear the famous Englishman and the chance of hearing FPFA field director Oliver Winston, who may appear this Monday to address the town council and any assembled guests following the council's meeting with him at his office to work over the budget.

Councilmen Attend P. G. League Meet

The town of Greenbelt has been invited to participate in the Prince Georges Municipal League, meeting on the second Thursday of each month. Mayor Bauer and Councilman Cain attended the last session when the organization was set up. The League is composed of official representatives from each town in Prince Georges County.

Auxiliary Gives St. Pat's Dance

A St. Patrick's Day Dance sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at the school auditorium on Saturday night, March 16. Music will be furnished by Walt Hubbell's Orchestra from 9 till 1. An added feature will be the drawing for a $10 door prize at 11:30 p. m. Tickets may be obtained from any of the following members of the ways and means committee: Virgie Drass, Betty Roberts, Elizabeth Iseli, Ada Riley, Mildred Comploier, Evelyn Green or Hilda Lastner.

Glee Club Stages "Sunbonnet Girl"

The Glee Club of Greenbelt High School will present the operetta "Sunbonnet Girl," in the elementary school auditorium at 8 p. m. on the evening of March 13 and 14. The production is under the direction of Miss Estelle Sakofsky, music teacher, assisted by faculty members and students.

The following students are appearing in leading roles: Clayton McCarl, Jerry Symer, Christie Richardson, Kay Roche, Maggie Cook and Frank Schrom. Tickets may be purchased from students or at the door. The price, including tax is 50c for adults, and 30c for children.

Showmobile To Highlight Drive

A "showmobile" will be at the center on Tuesday, March 13, from 10 to 11 a. m. as a feature attraction of the current Red Cross Drive. The four girls who were with the unit abroad will demonstrate the showmobile and put on the same 20-minute skit they performed for service personnel overseas.

Greenbelt is believed to be the first stop made in this area by the unit, now on its way from New York. College Park and Hyattsville are also on its itinerary.

Mrs. Joseph Rogers, chairman of the local drive, hopes the canvass of the town will be completed by drive workers before March 15. Anyone not personally contacted should call her at 3171.

As a result of the "no replacement" order of last December, and the failure of FPFA to approve the regular town budget before the first of the year, there has been no cashier in the rent collection office since the resignation of Helen Green in January, and two employees of the finance department upstairs, John J. Hartman and Jane Jones, have borne the expense of being bonded in order to handle rent receipts and other payments.

Comparative budget figures for past years are: for 1941, with 855 homes in the project, $67,609; for 1942, with 1000 homes, $111,723, and the same amount in 1943. In 1944, the first year of Manager Gobbel's regime, the figure was reduced to $104,399; in 1945 the budget was approved in the amount of $110,798, but a rent raise was threatened by the FPFA office for that year. In 1946, the payment in lieu of taxes has been put at $111,218 for normal operating expenses, with a request for an additional $16,928 to purchase two garbage trucks, a road roller, and playground equipment.

As of Tuesday, Mr. Gobbel had no information as to whether or not he had been fired, but he was maintaining regular office hours and all town functions were carrying on as usual. Lack of understanding all round was pointed up by the reading of a letter from Field Director Winston at the last council meeting, in which Greenbelt was referred to as "the village," also by the reported efforts of the field office to get hold of the last issue of the "Coordinator" so that local reaction to the Gobbel-budget problem might be observed.

9 Needless Fires

A careless cigarette smoker was the cause of a fire in the fields around the American Legion home Tuesday afternoon, which burnt off a couple of acres. Children playing with matches have started eight brush fire since March 1, and Fireman Johnny Belton requests parents to be more vigilant in keeping matches out of the hands of their incendiary youngsters.

Mumps, Measles Chicken Pox Here

The Public Health Department reports cases of chicken pox, measles and mumps, and urges parents to keep close watch for warning symptoms before sending children off to school or other public places. Public Health Nurse Stouffer wishes to praise Greenbelt parents for their cooperative attitude in the past. "For the number of children we have out here, and as close as we live, we've done very well," she states.

"In this area most of the so-called childhood diseases begin to appear in December and January, reach their climax in March and taper off in April and May. Mrs. Stouffer points out. "No adult needs to fear mumps if he is willing to go to bed and take proper care of himself," she remarked, scolding as old wives' tales the exaggerated stories of grownups contacting this disease with dire results.

Anyone suspecting the presence of a contagious disease is required to report it to the Public Health Department between 8 and 9 a. m. at 2-A Gardenway, phone 6111. Diagnosis is to be made by the family physician.

Patronage Returns

A number of GCS members have asked me about the basis of the 2.5% patronage return recently declared by the cooperative. Some of the members wonder why the full earnings of the cooperative were not distributed in patronage returns. Since I believe that other members have the same question in mind, I would like to use the columns of the Cooperator to explain the Board's recommendation which was approved at the membership meeting.

With total sales of $1,163,851 in 1945, GCS had a net saving (net profit) of $28,534, or 2.45%. This percent was rounded to 2.5%, the nearest tenth of one percent, and a patronage return of 2.5% will be paid on 1945 receipts (patronage return slips) turned in to the cooperative. Since receipts totaling about $600,000, a little over half the total GCS sales for 1945, were turned in for patronage returns, the total amount which will be issued in patronage returns will be 2.5% of $600,000 or about $15,000.
This will leave about $13,500 of the net savings not returned in patronage returns. Out of this amount, about $2900 will be needed to pay the 5% interest on capital stock owned by members. Another $2,850 must be set aside in a "permanent surplus reserve," since the GCS by-laws provide that 10% of the net savings shall be placed in this reserve so that the cooperative and our investment in it will be protected if GCS should incur losses. Finally, an income tax of about $2700, about 20% of the $13,500 of net savings not distributed as a patronage return, must be paid out of the rest of the net savings, leaving a balance of about $5050 to be transferred to a general reserve—further protecting our investment in GCS.

This may be summarized as follows: (The figures are approximate)

Total net savings, $28,500; Net savings allocated to permanent reserve, $2,850; Net savings used for 5% interest on shares, $2,900; Net savings used for 2.5% patronage returns, $15,000; Income tax, $2,700; Balance of net savings to general reserve, $5,050.

Some members have asked why a patronage return of more than 2.5% was not declared, so that more of the $28,500 in net savings would have been paid back to individual members. Some suggested dividing the entire $28,500 among the persons who turned in patronage return slips. Allocating the full $28,500 to the patronage returns would not have been possible, however, because the by-laws require that 10% of the net savings be allocated to the permanent reserve, and that interest on shares be paid before payment of patronage returns.

In distributing patronage returns at a rate no higher than the rate of net savings (2.5%), GCS followed the practice of most cooperatives. If a higher patronage return were paid (about 3.3% could be paid if the $5050 allocated to general reserve were used) the patronage return paid to members who turned in slips would include money really earned by others who failed to submit their slips. The members who turned in slips would receive more in return than their purchases justified, thereby making a profit out of the failure of some patrons to turn in their slips. Most cooperatives regard this as not in keeping with the non-profit nature of a cooperative.

Under the proposal advocated by the Board and accepted by the membership, the extra $5050 contributed by members who failed to turn in slips becomes the property of all the members by being added to the general reserve of the cooperative.

Don't Shoot!

It was suggested by several of the officers and members of the Greenbelt Gun Club that a letter be written to the public through the columns of the Cooperator, asking said public to please cease and desist from damaging the range cabin (by shooting the windows and breaking in) and from littering the area with broken bottles and tin cans.

It occurred to me that since this subject was last brought out in print the Town has grown tremendously and most of the residents are not aware of their range or how it came into being.
With your kindness, they will learn about this from the following remarks:

In discussing the Greenbelt Target Range we commence with two strikes against us in identifying its location as being between the Disposal Plant and the Cemetery—nevertheless that it where it is, appropriate or not.

The first range layout was performed as a joint project of the Gun Club and the Town Maintenance and Engineering forces, starting in 1939. Now there is a new layout under construction, and when the Club, in collaboration with the Police and Maintenance Departments, has carried out its new plans our Town will have one of the best rifle and pistol ranges in the State.

About six years ago the Greenbelt Gun Club requested permission to erect a range where its members, the police, and the general citizenry could hold marksmanship practice and conduct shooting matches. The Gun Club was authorized and directed by the Town Manager and the Council to go ahead with such a project, and gave considerable assistance in the beginning labors. The Club was told to maintain the range and to supervise its safe use by all shooters. The Club officers drew up certain range safety regulations approved by the National Rifle Association and passed upon by the Town Manager. The Club was told to run the range according to those rules, and the rules were posted on the range cabin which the Town gave to the Club for its range operating headquarters.

Five years ago the Cooperator published a notice stating that the Police would take official action against any person not abiding by the aforementioned range regulations and any person violating the Town Ordinance which limits any and all shooting within the Town to the area of the target range.

The Greenbelt Gun Club urged the establishment of the range as a Town sports accommodation, and set up the safety rules so that firearms accidents could be avoided.

During these fair-weather week ends, Club members are at the range wielding pick and shovel and doing carpentry in an effort to erect proper target frames, build up the protective backstop and the firing line, and to improve on the range cabin.

Given continued good weather and cooperation from all concerned, we can probably turn out a safe and comfortable range within a few weeks. While we are in the process, however, we of the Greenbelt Gun Club ask that pot-shooters refrain from cluttering up the site with tin cans and broken bottles. We ask that people stop shooting up the cabin windows and cease forcing the cabin door. These things are requested because: (a) we do not leave anything of value in the cabin, (b) anyone who damages this building or any range facility is damaging Government property and is subjecting himself to serious penalties, and (c) people shouldn't act so stupid and thoughtless.

We of the Gun Club want Greenbelt to have a nice target range, and we are putting a lot of volunteered thought and hard labor into the project. If others will cooperate in the matter 'twill make for a happier world.

When the range is finished and is open for general use on Saturdays and Sundays we will be happy to have all comers there and we will offer marksmanship advice and instruction, and will have targets and ammunition available at or near cost price.
The police, of course, will have their own materials and shooting schedules.

The Atomics took the odd game from the G. I.'s with Zier having a 118 and Van Deuser having a 112 for the losers; the Anchors with Timmons shooting a 309 set took two from the Pioneers; the Bombers grabbed the extra game from the Deuces; those Widgets edged out the Co-op and the Raiders, with Andestad having a 113 game and Blackett a 108 game took all three from the Victors. Men's Bowling

The Men's Bowling League is a regular checker game because on Tuesday, February 26, the Legionnaires with fine sets by Lastner, of 366, and Timmons, of 334, took all three games from the Redskins to tie again for first place while the Rummys dropped one to the Scorpions. The Southeast Glass with Blanchard's 378 set coupled with R. Bowman's 353 set made it tough for the Eagles as they took all three games. These other teams split two and one: the Commandos topped the Greenhorns; the Co-op nipped the Defenders; those Seahawks with Morgan's 331 set edged out the Emanon; the Pickups with excellent sets by MacEwen and Bates whipped the Piddlers and the Aces with Salvan's 353 set took the odd one from the Spoilers.

Men Of Church Vie In Member Contest

The men of the Community Church School started a membership and attendance contest last Sunday, dividing the class members into two teams, Red and Blue, to bring in new members and up attendance in the Bible class held every Sunday morning at 10. The winning team will be entertained at a banquet prepared and served by the losers after the close of the contest, Sunday, April 28.

The first count shows the Reds, captained by Clifford W. Woodward, slightly ahead of the Blues, headed by Albert J. Schaffer. George Eshbaugh, president of the men's class, invited old-timers and newcomers alike to attend the Bible lessons, which are conducted by James T. Gobbel, town manager, in the Home Economics room of the elementary school.

$68 For Libraries

The north-end and center schools held assemblies this week as the culmination of their drive to collect money for the Prince Georges County Library Memorial Fund.

Over $68 was presented by the two schools and the PTA, with $22.37 coming from the center school, $6.60 from the north-end and the balance from the Book Fair held last fall and from collections taken at subsequent PTA meetings.

Displays, sketches and plays depicted the activities of the proposed libraries which will serve as memorials to the veterans of World War 2. The advantages enjoyed by Greenbelt and the few other communities in the county which have the services of a public library were pointed up by the plays. Present plans call for a central library, with several branch libraries throughout the county and a Bookmobile to carry books to outlying sections of the county.

Wants Vet Grippers

A committee was formed at the last meeting of the American Veterans Committee to study problems of veterans returning to Government jobs. "All Greenbelt veteran grippers, non-AVC members included," are invited to contact chairman Ben Berkofsky at 5901.

The next regular meeting of the AVC will be held on Monday, March 11, at 8:30 p. m., in the social room of the elementary school.

The vehicle, which cost $3,000, replaces the old 1932 bus and will make two morning and two afternoon runs daily.

Spading Time Here

The Town office has sent out forms this week for all would-be gardeners. Those who want the same gardens they had last year, and those desiring new plots, should see that the forms are properly filled out and sent into Mr. Walls' office at once. Following the practice of the last few years, all the work must be done by the gardeners as the town has made no plans to plow the gardens.
